Information Exempt from Disclosure

- Personal information relating to Councillors, other than that information which is required to be declared in the Members' Register of Interests
- Personal information relating to employees
- Tenders and bids from contractors and suppliers
- Information discussed in closed session of a Council meeting, where it has been determined under the Public Bodies (Admissions to Meetings) Act 1960 that publicity would be prejudicial to the public interest due to the confidential nature of the business to be transacted. This information will fall under one of the categories above.

Schedule of Charges

Eligible information can be inspected at the Parish Office, by pre-arranged appointment. There is no charge for this.

Where information is published on the Parish Council or District Council website by way of a PDF file, this can be downloaded, with no charge.

Emailed copies of documents can be provided, with no charge.

Photocopies or hard copies of documents (that can be provided without breaching copyright laws) can be provided at a charge of 6p per single black & white A4 sheet or 10p per single colour A4 sheet. This charge is based on the actual cost incurred by the Parish Council.

If hard copies of documents which are available on the website are requested, the charges per sheet (as above) will apply.

Any hard copies of documents which are requested via the post, will be subject to an additional charge which will be the actual charge of 2nd class postage.

Where a lengthy and detailed search of archived Parish Council records is required, this will be subject to an administration fee of £25 per person per hour (irrespective of the actual cost), plus the prevailing photocopying charges. This is in line with the Freedom of Information and Data Protection (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations 2004, where the 'Appropriate Limit' is £450.

The Parish Council is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office.
